

PROGRAMME: BLOOD DONATION CAMP

VENUE: FURKATING COLLEGE

A voluntary Blood Donation Camp was organized in the College Campus jointly organized by NSS Unit, Red Ribbon Club and Youth Red Cross Unit of Furkating College in collaboration with Blood Bank, S.K.K Hospital, Golaghat on 23.02.2021. All preparation regarding arrangement of hall, beds, refreshment, etc. were made by the coordinator of the respective unit of NSS, Red Ribbon Club and Youth Red Cross Society of the college. Before starting the camp a short meeting was held in the auditorium hall regarding the importance of Blood donation. The meeting starts with an inaugural session by the Principal of the College, Dr. Apurba Saikia. A team of 6 doctor, counselor, and nurse and lab technician came for collection of blood. A total of more than 60 students were present in the meeting. Dr. Rupak Bora has given lecture on the importance of blood donation and its benefits. He says that donating blood means saving one's life and it is the noblest step in the service of humanity. The camp was open for all the neighboring people. Altogether 15 donors were donating blood in the camp including the teachers, office staff and students. Donors were given refreshment. The camp was over at around 1:30 in the afternoon with a great success. A certificate was given to each donor as a token of gratitude. And appreciation certificate was also given to the college for their selfless work and contribution.

PHOTOS OF BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Indina Senarpi
Co-Ordinator

Youth Red Cross Unit, Furkating College