

Proceeding 3:

A plantation drive and a meeting have been organized by Furkating College Alumni Association on 06/06/2018 at Baliya sapor, Kachomari keeping a realtion with World Environment Day. The meeting has been presided over by Darshanmoni Saikia, secretary of the Association and after that Tarun Saikia, associate professor of Department of assamese, Furkating College put forward the agendas of the meeting. Saikia delivered a lecture on World Environment Day and on the importance of planting trees to have a better natural environment around us. The secretary of the Association inaugurated the plantation drive by planting a tree and the members of the Association continued the drive.

After completion of the drive, Ghanashyam Bora on behalf of Balia Sapor village fraternity thanked the Association for initiating such an event. Darshana Devi, on behalf of the Asociation thanked everyone including the Association members and the villagers for co-operating in the event. The programme was concluded after a remark by the president of the meeting.