

Proceeding 4:

A meeting of Furkating College Alumni Association has been organized on 23/09/2018, Sunday at Furkating College auditorium. As the president of the Association was absent, jitul Bora presided over the meeting and secretary of the Association Darshanmoni Saikia put forward the agendas of the meeting.

Tarun Saikia, associate professor of Department of Assamese delivered a lecture in which he mentioned that money from the alumni fund should be spent for the well fare of the college and all the transactions should be recorded in a systematic way. After that Darshanmoni Saikia made an announcement that he would personally like to donate an almirah (wardrobe) to the Association and everyone present in the meeting applauded that. Darshana Devi proposed to initiate a Book Bank and requested everyone to donate books to the same. It has been decided that under the same initiative, free books will be provided to underprivileged students which they can keep for a period of one year. After that Darshanmoni Saikia proposed to hang a banner in the college campus as an act of awareness against misuse of mobile phone and ill effects of 'gutkha'. Discussions have been made to arrange an official and permanent room for the Association. At last it has been decided to produce a street play (Baator Naat) as an act of awareness on the said topics and to open a bank account for the Association. The meeting has been concluded after a remark by the president of the meeting.

Proposal No 1: It has been decided in the meeting to open a bank account for Furkating College Alumni Association at Allahabad Bank, Furkating Branch and Nityananda Hazarika, president of the Association and Darshanmoni Saikia, secretary of the Association have been given the responsibility take the initiative.