SPOT ADMISSION POLICY FOR FYUG AND B. VOC PROGRAMMES THROUGH SAMARTH

REQUIREMENTS FOR APPLICATION:

- Applicants should have the minimum eligibility criteria to apply for a programme as per the admission policy of the institution.
- The profile of the applicant should be complete in terms of required documents including domicile and fee waiver (if any).
- If a student wants to apply for a new program in the spot round, but the student has not registered or applied for any particular program, they need to submit a fresh application on the Samarth portal during the stipulated time period.
- If a student has already applied for a particular program (e.g., BA in Economics), they do not need to apply again for the same program to take admission in the spot round.

PROCESSING OF ADMISSION:

- Admission will be given in the Spot round taking into account the available vacancies before the Spot Round Admissions.
- The college/University will adhere to the established procedures for academic scrutiny and document scrutiny.
- Candidates must submit a printout of their application form along with a photocopy of required documents to the Admission Committee of the institution between 10:00 AM and 12 P.M during the Spot admission round. Admissions will be offered based on merit from the forms submitted during this time.
- Forms submitted after 12 PM will be considered only if there are vacant seats left.
- For granting admissions under reservation in the spot round, the institution will follow the notified policy subject to seat availability.
- Deserving applicants with higher merit score will get first preference for admission than the applicants with lower merit score.
- If the institution receives the admission fees outside of the integrated payment portal, it will return the whole amount to the applicant upon cancellation of the admission.
- During the Spot Admission round, a student is only permitted to take admission in one program/one department. He/she cannot withdraw from a program/Department once accepted in order to take admission in another program within the same Spot round.
